

*DeAndreis-Rosati
Memorial Archives*

Quarterly Lectures

The De-Andreis-Rosati Memorial Archives of the Midwest Province of the Congregation of the Mission, housed in the University Archives of the Richardson Library, are pleased to present the following presentation to the DePaul Community.

Guest Speaker

Silvia Arrom, Ph.D.

Brandeis University, Massachusetts

Department of History

Jane's Professor of Latin American Studies

Will speak on the topic

Mexican Laywomen Spearhead a Catholic Revival: The Ladies of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, 1863-1910

Women were at the forefront of a dramatic reform movement that revitalized Catholicism in late 19th-century Mexico. By organizing to help the poor, these lay volunteers created a huge organization that eclipsed its male counterpart and gradually enlarged the scope of traditional gender roles.

Wednesday, October 19, 2005

Richardson Library, Room 314

University Archives and Special Collections

2350 N. Kenmore Avenue

5:30 p.m. Welcome reception

6:00 p.m. Presentation and discussion

Please RSVP to Alice Farrell

312-362-8822 or afarrell@depaul.edu

by Monday, October 17

This lecture is co-sponsored by:
DeAndreis-Rosati Memorial Archives,
University Archives and Special Collections,
and the Office of Mission and Values.

