Recreate ’68? Hosted by Dr. Colleen Doody

This summer, on the fortieth anniversary of the Democratic convention in Chicago, a number of activists have suggested that protesters should “Recreate ’68” during both the Democratic and Republic conventions. This history club meeting will watch a documentary on the Chicago 1968 protests. Afterward, we’ll talk about what happened in the streets and how the American public interpreted the students’ actions. Please come join us for a lively discussion on this key event in this pivotal year.
