

6th Annual Student History Conference April 30, 2010

Submissions due: March 22, 2010

The Fine Print

The DePaul University History Department invites students to submit papers for presentation at the Sixth Annual Student History Conference on April 30, 2010.

We welcome papers on historical subjects prepared in any undergraduate or graduate classes at DePaul University from Spring Quarter 2009 through Winter Quarter 2010. Information about the conference and past paper titles can be found at the "Student History Conference" page under "Student Resources" on our department website las.depaul.edu/history.

Prizes will be awarded for the best papers.

Undergraduate papers should be 8 to 10 pages long, graduate papers 12 to 15 pages long. All submissions must include a cover sheet available online at the "Student History Conference" page on our department website.

Please send the cover sheet and your paper as a MS Word attachment (PC or MAC) to kross9@depaul.edu. The deadline for submissions is Monday, March 22. (Students who wish to submit their Winter Quarter 2010 papers must at least submit a cover sheet by that date, though the full paper may be submitted March 31.) For more information, please check the Department's website or contact Prof. Tom Krainz (tkrainz@depaul.edu) or Prof. Kerry Ross (kross9@depaul.edu) in the History Department.

Please note that the electronic submission of your paper signifies your permission for the History Department of DePaul University, at its discretion, to post your article on the History Conference website as well as to publish it with appropriate attribution in print or via an e-journal posting.
