

A Townhall Meeting

Featuring Sen. Richard Durbin

Security, Stability, Self-Sufficiency: International Assistance & The Case for U.S. Global Engagement

University of Chicago's Gleacher Center
450 North Cityfront Plaza Drive
Friday, September, 12, 2003
5:00 p.m.
Reception & Panel Discussion

To RSVP, please contact Erin Tunney at 202/667-8227 or etunney@interaction.org.

 InterAction[®]
American Council for Voluntary International Action

This event is co-sponsored by InterAction and the U.S. Global Leadership Campaign

InterAction, the largest alliance of U.S.-based international development and humanitarian nongovernmental organizations, is holding a series of town hall meetings across the nation to engage the American public in a dialogue on the importance and impact of international assistance programs to U.S. foreign policy and national interest. The series is part of a multi-year campaign, "Global Partnership for Effective Assistance," and is made possible through a grant from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

For more information about InterAction or the Global Partnership for Effective Assistance, please visit www.interaction.org.

The U.S. Global Leadership Campaign, a coalition of over 300 businesses and organizations, is dedicated to supporting a strong international affairs budget and promoting U.S. global engagement. For more information, please visit the website www.usgloballeadership.org