

Announcing Discounted Conference Rates for Chicago-area students, teachers, and activists to

Race, Labor and the City: Crises Old and New

Thursday, May 28 – Sunday, May 31, 2009

Labor and Working-Class History Association and the Fund for Labor Culture and History (Laborlore Conversations IV) conference at

Roosevelt University (430 S. Michigan Avenue, Chicago)

with 30+ panels, plenary roundtables and workshops, an awards luncheon, music event, and keynote dinner at UNITE Hall.

Discounted Daily Rate: $15

Includes all panels, plenaries, workshops, and music event on those day(s)

And Discounted Rates for Special Events:

Awards Lunch, Friday May 29th: $10

Evening Music Event, Friday May 29th: $5 (or free with Friday registration)

Dinner and Keynote on Saturday May 30, UNITE Hall: $10

Labor Trail Bus Tour, Sunday May 31st: $20

Required registration via email: chi.lawcha09@gmail.com (email days/events you will attend)

The on-site registration desk opens at 10am on Thursday, May 28th but space is limited.

Advanced payment highly recommended. Please mail a check payable to Roosevelt University to Erik S. Gellman, Assistant Professor of History, Roosevelt University, Department of History, 430 S. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, IL 60605-1394

For more information, including the complete conference schedule, see:

<http://chi-lawcha09.indstate.edu>; Questions? Email: chi.lawcha09@gmail.com