

Lincoln Park Community
RESEARCH INITIATIVE
DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

Lincoln Park Community
Research Initiative
Spring Program

Tuesday, June 2, 2009
DePaul University
Student Center
2250 North Sheffield

Reception 6:30 p.m.
Program 7:00 p.m.

Admission is free

RSVP to Fran Casey
Community, Government and
International Affairs
Phone: (312) 362-8100
E-mail: cgia@depaul.edu
Web: <http://cgia.depaul.edu>
Click on the registration link
(lower left-hand corner of the page)

And The Beat Goes On...

Four Decades of Music in Lincoln Park

The Music scene in Lincoln Park has been a hub for a variety of music genres from Folk to Rock, Blues to Jazz for over four decades.

Please join us to hear about this fertile field of creativity for the music, the musicians and the venues that have added richness to the tapestry of life in the community.

Moderator:

Rick Kogan: Chicago Tribune Senior Writer

Panelists:

Lino Darchun: Owner, The Bulls, 1977 - 1988

Steve Hashimoto: Musician and Commentator, contemporary music scene

Ed Holstein: Folk Singer

Dean Milano: Musician and Author

DePaul University

Lincoln Park Community Research Initiative

Community, Government and International Affairs

1 East Jackson

Chicago, IL 60604

And The Beat Goes On...

Four Decades of Music in Lincoln Park

Tuesday, June 2, 2009

Admission is free

This event is easily accessible via public transportation (1 block from the CTA Fullerton Stop on the Brown and Red Lines)

Parking is available at the Sheffield Garage at 2331 N. Sheffield, or the Clifton Garage at 2330 N. Clifton.